

I am in opposition to the proposed changes to the FCC regulations regarding what is allowed on network television. Explicit language and nudity should not be allowed, especially during day time or prime time viewing hours.